GEORGE L. PHERIGO TUTORIAL CITATION AWARD

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of the George L. Pherigo Tutorial Citation Award is to recognize and honor an individual who has made significant contributions and efforts in the area of NDT education and training. These contributions should include but not be limited to one or more of the following:

1.1 Long-term educational efforts through a local section.

1.2 Noteworthy service and promotion of education and training through service to the Technical and Education Council.

1.3 Development, planning, or conduction of educational or training courses through an academic institute, (such as trade or vocational schools, colleges, universities) or other formalized and recognized educational institutions.

1.4 Development and publication of educational materials or training aids that are judged to be outstanding.

1.5 Outstanding contributions to development or publication of an NDT Handbook.

The recipient shall be an acknowledged contributor in the field of NDT education but need not be an ASNT member. This George L. Pherigo Tutorial Citation shall be given to no more than one individual at the Fall Conference Award of the Society each year, unless in the opinion of the subcommittee no nominee is qualified. In this case, the George L. Pherigo Tutorial Citation Award will not be given in that year.

2.0 Membership of the Subcommittee

The selection subcommittee shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Board in accordance with Policy J-5.2.

3.0 Method of Nomination

The ASNT membership shall be notified of the search for George L. Pherigo Tutorial Citation nominees through publication in the February issue of Materials Evaluation in accordance with Policy J-5.2, Paragraph 5.0.

All nominations submitted to the subcommittee must be accompanied by substantial support documentation attesting to the qualification and accomplishments of the nominee. Nominees considered by the subcommittee but not selected shall be retained and reconsidered for at least two (2) more years. Nominators shall be sent a thank you letter upon receipt of their nomination.

4.0 Method of Selection

The subcommittee may meet or correspond in order to complete the selection process. The recommended candidate(s) shall be submitted to the Awards Committee chairperson with substantial support documentation. The ASNT Board of Directors will approve or disapprove the nomination.

5.0 Notification

The recipient shall be notified by the Chairman of the Board following concurrence of the Awards Committee and Board of Directors at the Spring Conference. Notification shall be prepared by Headquarters and sent by registered mail. An invitation to receive the award at the Fall Conference banquet shall be extended. After the Board has reviewed and approved the awardee, all nominators shall be sent notification of the winner. No discussion should be given as to why the unselected nominees were not chosen.

6.0 Expenses

The recipient of the award shall receive one complimentary registration and two banquet tickets for the conference when the award will be presented.

7.0 Confidentiality

All deliberations of the subcommittee shall be confidential. No discussions regarding the selection process or any aspect of the subcommittee's activities shall be divulged.

The results of the subcommittee's activities shall be held confidential by the members of the committee, the Awards Committee, and the Board of Directors until the recipients have been notified. Names of unsuccessful candidates shall be held confidential because of consideration in later years.
