SOC AWARDS DIVISION
“Lou DiValerio Technician of the Year Award”
The American Society for Nondestructive Testing, Inc.
1711 Arlingate Lane, P.O. Box 28518
Columbus, OH 43228-0518

Definition of a Technician

This Award is intended for an individual whose primary duties are those of a technician. As such the acceptability of various products is determined by this individual from predetermined criteria and the data the individual collects through the application of one or more nondestructive test methods. The nondestructive test method(s) is (are) performed to written instructions. In general, the individual’s duties and responsibilities should be similar to those described by SNT-TC-1A for NDT Level I or NDT Level II personnel.

No single definition of a technician will be adequate in all cases. However, some general rules shall apply.

1. Primary job function is to perform “hands-on” inspection and evaluation of various products through the application of one or more nondestructive testing methods.
2. Has no supervisory or managerial responsibilities other than “on-the job” training or “guidance” as described in SNT-TC-1A.
3. Has no responsibility for technique development (other than “in-practice” improvement, or data collection for engineering personnel).
4. Has no responsibility for the development of the criteria used for product acceptance.
5. Normally would not hold an educational degree higher than a two-year (associate’s) engineering diploma.

Requirements

1. The “Lou DiValerio - Technician of the Year” must be a distinguished member of the Society through service to ASNT which exhibited exceptional merit and also as an accomplished technician.
2. The nomination of an individual for the “Lou DiValerio - Technician of the Year” must be made jointly by the individual’s employer and by the local (sponsoring) section. Nominations must be made on the form provided. Include supporting documentation as required. It is the responsibility of the local section of the individual to verify the accuracy of the data supporting the nomination.

“Lou DiValerio - Technician of the Year Award”

3. The nominee’s application shall be evaluated by the SOC TOY Selection Committee using established guidelines and rating categories.
 4. In order for this award to be given, a nominee must achieve a rating of 1,600 or more points.
 5. The “Lou DiValerio - Technician of the Year Award” is given one time to a deserving recipient. Nominations for prior award recipients will not be considered.
 6. The “Lou DiValerio - Technician of the Year Award” is presented at the Fall Conference.

Documentation Required
